Update: Wisconsin Shares Subsidy Amount Continuation & Expansion for Children Birth through Four Years Old

The Department of Children and Families' (DCF) Division of Early Care and Education will continue your Wisconsin Shares subsidy amount for infants and toddlers as part of the 53206 Initiative program. In addition, we have expanded this program to now include all children ages birth through four years old. This program is for families living in the 53206-zip code.

This Wisconsin Shares funding on your MyWICildCare Electronic Benefit Transfer (EBT) card will continue and remain the same until further notice.

Your Monthly Wisconsin Shares Subsidy Changes
Months Your MyWICildCare EBT Card will receive added funding	Full-time Subsidy Increase	Part-time Subsidy Increase
July 2023 through until further notice*	$105	$79

Wisconsin Shares Full-time and Part-time policy changes may impact this funding*

This initiative highlights the continued efforts of DCF and Governor Tony Evers' 53206 Early Care and Education Initiative to support equitable access to high-quality early care and education settings for your children, impact the quality of care provided to your children, and provide more resources to your child care provider.
